

Sweetheart Time.

Words by
C. R. DUMARS.

Music by JAMES SCOTT.

[Verse]

1 3 5

7 9

In Spring when the flow - ers are
One glo - ri - ous night in the 11 13 15

bloom - ing fine that is just the time when my Sweet - heart month of June with a big full moon just the time to 17 19

mine Looks fair - er and sweet - er than an - y spoon My Sweet - heart and I had that eve - ning

21 23

Rose That is known far the sweet - est of all that grows Her planned and were go - ing up town, just to hear the Brass Band Her eyes are dark brown and her hair is too Her teeth are like moth - er and Fath - er said they'd go too For neith - er had 31 33

25 27 29

Pearl, but of bet - ter hue She looks ve - ry neat and is an - y - thing else to do This made her so mad and made so ve - ry sweet She is Joy - ful and nev - er gets blue.

35 37 39

me feel so bad for they made this bright night a hoo - doo.

CHORUS. 1 3

It was sweet - heart time when she said I'm thine, If you ask my 11 13

5 7 9

Pa - pa and my ma - ma and they give their 15 17

heart-y con - sent which I hope But if they ob - ject, which I do ex - - - pect

19 21 23

25 27

- We will have to be good un - til they're in the mood For it's 29

1 31a 2 31b

sweet - heart time It was time.